CHURCH SERVICES TO-MORROW IN WASHINGTON AND ITS VICINITY.

Notices for these columns should reach The Herald office by 9 p. m. Friday.

EPISCOPAL.

At St. Agnes' Chapel, North Capitol and First Streets Northwest, Rev. C. W. Whitmore, vicar, the congregation are to have the opportunity this year for the first time of joining in their own place of worship in the three-hour service on Good Friday.

The vicar, in urging the men of his charge to avail themselves of the religious observance of Good Friday, appropriately says:

"Men have been known to take a day off from business and to lose a day's pay or perhaps to go fishing or to go on a picnic or to see a ball game, or to attend the funeral of some friend or lodge mate. Is the death of our Saviour or so much less important than any of these that a man can't be expected to lose a day or part of a day for him?"

The regular monthly meeting of the Sunday School Institute of the Diocese of Washington was held on Thursday, March 14, at 7:30 p. m., in Epiphany Parish Hall. The first speaker was the Bishop of Washington, whose subject was "The Teacher's Duty to the Pupil and to the Church." Miss Letitia Mechin, head of the infant department of the afternoon Sunday school of the Church of the Epiphany, followed the Bishop with a paper on the "Discussion and Decision as to the Continuance and Place of the May Rally for Sunday School Children."

The next meeting will be on April 15, when the hour of meeting will be 8 p. m., instead of 7:30.

An offer to build a $12,000 memorial chapel for All Souls' Mission has just been made to the minister in charge, Rev. Dr. J. MacBride Stewart.

The offer is made in the understanding that the debt on the lot on which the chapel stands will be canceled and that the mission will be set apart as a separate parish by the convention, for which all dues have already been taken from the mission.

All Souls' has prospered in its work of meeting the religious needs of the new section of the city in which it is located. In its second year it has a well appointed chapel, which with its furnishings, is worth over $2,000, all paid for. The regular congregation quite fills it. The members are working with great enthusiasm in the various guilds that have been organized. Twenty-six persons have been confirmed and another class awaits the Bishop's next visit. From sixty to seventy persons come regularly to the Holy Communion. Larger accommodations are already needed. A $12,000 chapel would seat 250 people.

The mission undertook the purchase of the present site of the chapel on Cathedral Avenue (1,000 square feet) looking to the west of the church in the future as well as to the east. The lot cost $2,500. Of this $2,500 has already been paid and $500 more pledged, which leaves a balance of $1,000. It is hoped to raise this by Easter, so that the $12,000 can be secured.

Archdeacon Webber, of Boston, who devotes himself to the preaching of missions, was a visitor at the rectory of Christ Church, Georgetown, and the guest of Rev. J. H. W. Blake. He preached at the evening service last night and after took the midday train for Toledo, Ohio, where he begins a mission lasting throughout Holy Week in Trinity parish.

At the monthly missionary meeting held last Monday afternoon at the rectory of Christ Church, a most interesting address on Sacraments was given by Mrs. Holdridge. An address was also delivered by Comdant, which proved very interesting to the hearers.

Mrs. Mountford delivered a lecture as announced on the "Boyhood of Jesus" in St. Thomas' Parish Hall, Friday, March 14, at 7 p. m. Mrs. Mountford is announced to deliver a lecture on the "Crucifixion" on Good Friday, at 8 p. m., in the same place.

Mrs. Walter Huchison has been in Washington this week, trying to arouse an interest in and secure help for Grace Hospital, Morgantown, N. C., of which she is the general manager. Mrs. Huchison is the widow of one of the most effective missionary clergy of the Southland.

In aid of the Episcopal Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital, a concert will be held at the Raleigh Hotel on Wednesday and Thursday, April 9 and 10, from 4 to 10, when there will be music and dancing. A supper will be served in the hotel, which it is hoped will prove both popular and successful.

The Rev. E. Edmund Seyniger concluded yesterday at the Columbia Theater the course of four lectures he has been giving on "Continuity, Doctrine, and Present Day Power of the Anglican Church." The Community of the Resurrection, of which Mr. Seyniger is a member, was founded in 1882 by the present Bishop of Oxford, Charles Gore. The aims of the community are:

(a) The revival of the religious life.
(b) Mission work at home and abroad.
(c) The supply and training of the clergy.

The members at Miffield, England, are engaged in teaching at the college, preparing candidates for holy orders, religious literary work, preparing for church instruction, home and abroad, for holding retreats, missions in army, navy, prisons, and rescue homes, and for work in the foreign field.

The Washington committee, under whose auspices the lectures have been given, is composed of the following ladies: Mrs. Henry White, chairman; Mrs. William Corcoran, Mrs. E. W. Gwynne, Mrs. Henry Cabot Lodge, E. Rollins, Mrs. Richard Mulligan, Mrs. William Rives, Mrs. George Vanderbilt, and Miss Maud Wetmore.

The chairman of the Rector's Aid, assisted by the ladies of the guild and the vestrymen, have completed plans and will place choir stalls in the chancel of St. Thomas' Church before Easter in memory of the rector's wife, Mrs. C. Ernest Smith.

The choir stalls will be a tribute from the members of the congregation, and friends outside, to the many acts of unselfish and untiring devotion to the needs of the parish and her special help and interest in the music of the services.

Those in charge of the memorial are: Mrs. Norman Gale, president; Mrs. J. W. Reilly, treasurer; Miss Laura E. Tilson, secretary.

Easter services at St. Thomas' are as follows:

7 a. m., Holy Communion; 8 a. m., Holy Communion; 9:30 a. m., Holy Communion; 11 a. m., Matins and Holy Communion and sermon by the rector; 4 p. m., children's service; 8 p. m., choral service with sermon by Rev. C. Herbert Brown.

At the confirmation service held Sunday night last in St. Thomas' Church, near Dupont Circle, the clergy of the parish presented to the Bishop seventeen men and boys and thirteen women and girls to receive the "laying on of hands," a total of thirty. The women and girls, as is the custom at St. Thomas', were white dresses and veils, and the decorations of the altar, the flowers and the stole of the clergy were all red in recognition of the character of the service as an occasion of the sacramental gift of the Holy Spirit.

At 11 a. m. on the same day the Bishop visited St. John's Church, near Lafayette Square, when he will deliver a series of addresses at All Souls' Church on "The Holy Life," as illustrated by Wordsworth's poem, "Character of the Happy Warrior." This is President Wilson's favorite poem.

AT THE CROSS-ROADS.

A PASSION WEEK CHALLENGE TO THE CHURCH.

By DR. SHAILER MATHEWS,

President Federal Council of Churches of Christ.

Again the world stands at the cross-roads of history. A few brief years will fix the course of centuries.

Great crises will come again, but they will spring from the crisis of our day. New institutions, new nations will be developed, but we shall determine whether they shall be Christian.

Never again can China arouse itself from the quiet of centuries into a republic.

Never again can Africa be so free from Mohammedanism and European greed.

Never again can the vast social movements which are remaking our homes, our industry, our very ideals be so easily Christianized.

Never again can the Gospel help organize a new civilization among the hundreds of millions who never heard of Jesus.

Never again can we be in a position to fix the future of those who are to come after us.

Christianity must dominate the new forces, the new conditions, the new nations, the new institutions, the new ideals now or lose the greatest opportunity the church has ever faced.

We blame the church of the past—of Judaism, of the Roman Empire, of the Crusades, of the Reformation, of the American colonies—because it did not know the day of its visitation and let so many opportunities slip from its grasp.

Will the future say the same of us?

No generation ever faced such possibilities of future weal or woe as does ours as it sees nations being reborn, civilization looking to the church for guidance, and yet sees the forces of evil, of paganism, of Mohammedanism growing more aggressive.

The Church of Jesus Christ must grow militant or it will grow feeble. Christians must sacrifice for their Master or see their Master put to an open shame.

The opportunity is marvelous and appalling.

It is God's challenge to His church.

Square, when at a confirmation service he confirmed nine candidates presented by the rector, Rev. Roland Cotton-Smith, D. D.

At St. Paul's Church, Twenty-third Street and Washington Circle, Rev. Canon Talbot, rector, St. Paul's "Crucifixion" will be sung on Good Friday evening, March 23, with LeRoy Gilder as tenor, Henry Talmage, baritone, and J. W. Cherry, Jr., as organist.

Too wide publicity cannot be given to the fact that the Social Service Conference has organized a confidential exchange, to meet the needs of the clergy, of church auxiliaries and societies that give relief, and of those who desire to assist in securing employment, hospital treatment, homes for children, and other help.

A Business Woman's Exchange has also been organized, with Miss Field as manager, and Deaconess Carroll and Mrs. Boyd as advisory board. Office, 123 G Street Northwest (third floor). Office hours, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.; Saturdays, 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.; Tuesday evenings, 7:30 to 9 p. m.; Telephone main 503.

Until further notice the Social Service Conference will meet at Epiphany Parish Hall, 123 G Street Northwest, at St. John's, the first and third Tuesdays of the month at 10:30 a. m.

At Epiphany Church, Holy Week and Easter services will be:

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday: Short services at noon for busy people from 12:30 to 1:30.

Passion services the same days at 4:15 p. m.

Maundy Thursday: Holy communion at 11:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m.

Good Friday: Service and sermon at 10:30 a. m. Three hours' devotion, 12 to 3 p. m., conducted by the rector.

Easter Day: Service at 1:15 p. m., with holy baptism.

Easter Day: Holy communion, 7:30 and 11 a. m.; full Easter service at 11 a. m.; children's festival service at 4 p. m.; evening prayer and sermon at 8 p. m.

At Trinity Church the Easter services are:

Good Friday: Morning prayer and ante-communion, 7:30 a. m.; Morning prayer, ante-communion and sermon, 10 a. m.; three hours' service, 12 to 3 p. m.; evening prayer and sermon, 8 p. m.

The Good Friday and Easter services at Ascension Church will be:

Good Friday: Morning prayer and ante-communion, 7:30 a. m.; Morning prayer, ante-communion and sermon, 10 a. m.; three hours' service, 12 to 3 p. m.; evening prayer and sermon, 8 p. m.

Easter Day: Holy communion, 7 a. m.; 8 a. m.; morning prayer, holy communion and sermon, 11 a. m.; Sunday school festival, 4:30 p. m.; evening prayer and sermon, 8 p. m.

All Souls' Church, corner of Fourteenth and L Streets, announces that during the week beginning Sunday, March 16, there will be daily vesper services in the church. Services will begin at 4:45.

The church will be open on Sunday afternoon, will last one-half hour. There will be music at each service by the quartet choir. At each service the minister, Mr. Ulysses E. Piers will make a brief address, the general theme being the heroic life as illustrated by the poem "Character of the Happy Warrior." The following were confirmed: Walter C. Clephane, son of long held in this church by the honored and lamented Justice Harlan. The reports showed an addition of seventy-four members, and financial receipts from all sources of $2,624.86. The following were confirmed: Walter C. Clephane, Carl A. Juurison, Charles B. Pearson, and George W. White; treasurers, Deacons Holcombe G. Johnson, Philip F. Lamar, A. G. McCune, and Isaac Pearson; and elders, Charles H. Pliskaugh, H. S. Irvin, and Thomas R. Keene.

To-morrow evening Dr. Radcliffe will continue his lectures upon "Young Man's Objections," his subject being, "Am as Good as the Church Member."

Next week there will be services on consecutive evenings with the theme, "The Romance of Livingstone."

Holy Week will be appropriately observed at the Metropolitan Memorial Church, Dr. James Shera Montgomery, minister.

Monday evening—The Day of Authority, the curing of the fig tree, and the cleansing of the temple.

Tuesday evening—The Day of Controversy, the challenge of Christ's authority and the three warning parables.

Wednesday evening—"In Gethsemane."

Thursday evening—The administration of holy communion and a brief address on "The Highest Mission."

Good Friday—At 11 o'clock, "The Ray of the Cross." At 4:30 p. m., "The Burial." Devotional services at 8 o'clock. Subject, "The Death of Christ."

Special Passion Week services will be held every evening except Saturday at 10 o'clock at Hamilton Methodist Episcopal Church, Ninth and F Streets Northwest.

ROMAN CATHOLIC.

Catholics throughout Washington, who have been attending the important courses of Sunday evening Lenten conferences by Rev. Thomas D. Williams, pastor of St. Anthony's Church, were deeply impressed by the special sermon of last Sunday, the subject of which was "Obedience to God."

"The pastor of St. Anthony's is a master of sacred eloquence, and his sermon on this occasion has been said to be one of the most devotional and inspiring ever preached during this Lenten season in Washington. The speaker's strong and pleasing voice, sincerity of manner, graceful delivery, and excellent choice of words added him in convincing to the congregation the important lessons contained in this, the next to the last of the Lenten conferences of 1913.

The Lenten pastor will conclude the Lenten conferences with a sermon on "The Reward."

The blessings of palms will take place in St. Joseph's Church to-morrow morning immediately before the high mass, which will be celebrated at 10:30 o'clock by the Rev. Ignatius Fealy.

During the solemn ceremonies of Holy Week Father Schmitt and Father Fealy will be assisted by Rev. Thomas A. Calnan, of the Catholic University. The choir of St. Joseph's Church will chant the Tenebrae during the week.

Palm Sunday will inaugurate a series of solemn and impressive devotions in St. Patrick's Church in commemoration of Holy Week, which will mark the close of the Lenten season, on Easter Sunday, March 17.

During the Lenten season, on Easter Sunday, March 17, Father Schmitt will be assisted by Right Rev. William T. Russell, assisted by two priests from Holy Cross College, Brookland, D. C., as deacon and subdeacon. Immediately preceding the high mass will be a procession of the palms, which will be blessed, during which the "Passion" will be chanted by students from Holy Cross, assisted by the sanctuary choir.

The church will be a scene of devotion and prayer by the choir, the meaning of the palms. Following the mass the palms will be distributed to the congregation.

On Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings at 7:30 o'clock the Tenebrae will be held. The service will be rendered by the mixed choir, under the direction of Miss Jennie Glennan, at the services at 7:30 p. m. Palm Sunday night, Rev. John M. McNamara will preach.

Monday, St. Patrick's Day, the patronal feast of this church, will be celebrated with masses at 8:30, 10:30, and 12:30 p. m. The Rev. J. H. Meagher, O. P., rector of St. Dominic's Church, this city, will be the celebrant, and the sermon will be delivered by Rev. John P. Kane, of the Catholic University. The apostolic delegate, Right Rev. John Benavente, will occupy a throne in the sanctuary. Mr. Carroll, of the papal legation, and Mr. Russell, of St. Patrick's, and a number of visiting clergymen also will be seated in the sanctuary. The music will be rendered by the choir, and a custom of the Ancient Order of Hibernians will attend the services and occupy the pews in the main aisle.

The masses on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday will be celebrated at 8:30, 10:30, and 12:30 p. m. Each of these evenings special devotions will be held at 4:45 p. m., which will consist of a short meditation, followed by the Tenebrae, and the chanting of the "Miserere."

On Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings at 7:30 o'clock the Tenebrae will be held. The service will be rendered by the choir, and a custom of the Ancient Order of Hibernians will attend the services and occupy the pews in the main aisle.

UNIVERSALIST.

"The Church of Our Father, Thirtieth and L Streets, always celebrates Palm Sunday, not that it accepts all the dogmas on the subject, but it is one with all other churches in celebrating the triumphal life of Jesus. The pastor, Rev. John Van Schaick, Jr., will preach on "Palm Sunday" at 11 a. m.

Special music will be added to the Palm Sunday service in Christ Lutheran Church, Miss Louise Schmitt will sing "The Coming of the King," by Schnecker, and Mr. J. Crosby McCarthy will render "Jerusalem," by Parker. The pastor, Rev. J. Frederic Wenzel, will preach a sermon on "Two Cries—Hosanna and Crucify."

A large class will be confirmed in the Keller Memorial Lutheran Church, Maryland Avenue and Ninth Street Northwest, Rev. Charles P. Wiles, pastor, to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock. This will be the last class of the year, and will consist of church membership by the rite of confirmation by the present pastor, as he takes up his new duties in Philadelphia April 1.

There will be "sermons in song" at the Grace Baptist Church, Ninth and D Streets Southeast, by the Bergs sisters, singing evangelists of Philadelphia, who will preach at 11 a. m. on the topic, "Hosanna." Palm Sunday sermon, Miss Rials will sing. At the evening service Miss Mountford will deliver one of her delightful lectures. A service will be held in the auditorium at 7:30 p. m., at which Dr. Granger will preach, and a special musical programme will be rendered. Miss Rials, soloist, and Miss Margaret O'Neil, harpist, the public is cordially invited to all services.

Gurley Memorial Church is joining with Hamilton-Temple in the latter's regular services. A special programme has been issued for Passion Week.

Rev. Dr. Charles Wood will preach in the Church of the Covenant at the 1:30 o'clock morning service. At the 2:30 o'clock afternoon service the double exhort will render part two from "The Message from the Mount." The subject of which "Christ Wept" will be the subject of the evening sermon. At the evening service the chorus choir will sing the second part of "The Crucifixion," a cantata, by Sir John Stainer.

"The Excesses of the City" will be the subject of the evening service. At 4:30 o'clock afternoon service during the week before Easter, a special programme will be an address by Dr. Wood at 4:30 o'clock. The double exhort will sing MacFarlane's cantata, "The Message from the Cross."

The 19th annual meeting of New York Avenue Church was held last Thursday evening, and although the rainstorm was great the attendance was large and enthusiastic. Mr. Walter C.
